A SUDDEN TWINGE

Of pain is generally the first warning of an attack of rheumatism. It feels as if the disease were in the bones or muscles, but the real cause of rheumatism is found in impure blood. In order to cure rheumatism the blood must be cleansed of the poisonous impurities which are the cause of the disease.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery has been very successful in the cure of rheumatism, because it entirely cleanses the blood from the poisonous uric acid which is the cause of the disease.

Your Golden Medical Discovery cured me of rheumatism after I had tried a dozen remedies without relief and also gone West in search of health," writes Harry Kitter, of No. 145 6th Street, Denver, Colo. "Only those who have suffered from this dread malady know the pain and misery I endured for over five years. Whenever the weather was damp or cold my troubles were increased and my joints would be so stiff and sore that I was hardly able to move about, and often unable to dress myself. I used a number of highly recommended medicines, but they had no effect whatever on me, and I came to Colorado hoping to regain my health, but failed to obtain the relief I had hoped for. A gentleman in the house where I lived advised me to use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, and in four months and a half after I began using it I was a well man, and have had no touch of it for the past seven months."

The sole motive for substitution is to permit the dealer to make the little more profit paid by the sale of less meritorious medicines. He gains; you lose. Therefore accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery."

These tiny, sugar-coated antacid granules regulate and invigorate Stomach, Liver and Bowels. Do not lose the "pill habit," but cure constipation. One or two each day for a laxative and regulator, three or four for an active cathartic. Once tried always in favor. Put up in vials; always fresh and reliable.

HEALTHY PLANTS
Require the Most Careful Attention as Well as Good Soil.

Did you ever see a rosebush which—despite the most beneficent environment of soil—of sunshine—and of atmosphere—seemed never to achieve a healthy growth.

A ton of manure will not help a plant that has a canker eating out its heart.

You must destroy the cause before you can remove the effect.

You cannot cure Dandruff and Baldness by rubbing on hair lotions, and rubbing in vasoline, etc.

You must look to the cause of the trouble—it's a germ at the roots of your hair which causes it to fall out.

Newb's Herpicide destroys the germ, and healthy hair is the sure result.

Sold by leading druggists. Send for stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

DEPRESSION IN ST. PETERSBURG.

The scenes at the Admiralty and War Office in St. Petersburg yesterday were a repetition of those of Tuesday, crowds of weeping women and children vainly asking for lists of the survivors of the Port Arthur garrison, which could not be furnished.

While the Russian military law is imperative in the requirement that the commander of a fortress who surrenders shall be tried by court-martial, the Emperor undoubtedly will order that this formality be dispensed with in the case of General Stoessel.

The fall of Port Arthur has taken all the heart out of the approaching festivities of the Russians Christmas. It is even proposed to dispense with the illuminations and decorations which are always features of the holidays. The churches are filled with mourning friends and relatives of the fallen heroes of the fortress.

A national service in the Kazan Cathedral, at which the Emperor and the imperial family will be present, is scheduled for today. The zemstvos and town councils of many cities, including St. Petersburg, have adjourned as testimony of their grief as a result of the public calamity, and subscriptions have already been started to erect a monument to General Kondratenko, who was killed at Port Arthur December 13.

But the unmistakable grief of the people is also accompanied by undeniable mutterings against the government. The papers are openly attacking the military censorship for keeping the public in the dark as to the true situation of the fortress and allowing its surrender to come as a surprise. They are using this as a text to show the necessity for taking the people into the government's confidence and are continuing their attacks on the bureaucracy.

"whose bloodless lips repeat the same old lie whenever it is proposed that the sovereign should hear the voice of the people."

The Ross declares the nation's well-wishers could not tolerate the idea of peace, but adds that no victory is possible with disunion at home, and insists that "Japan is counting as much on the possibility of a revolution in Russia as upon her own army and strategists. Therefore it is vital to convince Japan that if the war is to be pushed until the enemy's resources are exhausted the whole Russian nation will be solid, which, however, will only be possible by allowing the real representatives of the nation to speak."

The renewal of agitation on this line in spite of the official warning is extremely significant and may foreshadow a coming crisis. Indeed, a prominent writer issues a warning in as many words that unless the people are taken into the government's confidence in its ultimate purposes it faces inevitable disaster at home.

From reliable information it appears that the military situation below Mukden is by no means as satisfactory as represented. The number of troops at General Kuropatkin's disposition is about 225,000, and the transportation over the Siberian Railroad is proving inadequate. This fact, in connection with the internal situation, might have an important bearing should Japan submit peace propositions.

There was a demonstration in front of Grand Duke Sergius' palace in Moscow yesterday. Crowds paraded the vicinity, stoned the palace, and cried, "Down with the war." Grand Duke Sergius, formerly governor general of Moscow, has not entered Moscow since his return from St. Petersburg. He keeps closely to the well-guarded Nickolski Palace on the outskirts of Moscow. He retains his position of commander-in-chief of the military district, but the governor generalship has been abolished, and the city will be placed under a prefect similar to St. Petersburg.

DEATHS IN STORM.

The blizzard caused seven deaths in New York and vicinity, yesterday while persons overcome by the cold, dropped to the street, some of them receiving fractured bones. Five of the seven men who met death from the results of the storm died from exposure. Samuel Harris, a traveling man from Pittsburg, slipped on the icy platform of an elevated station fell in front of an approaching train, and was ground to pieces. The seventh, L. W. Eller, a conductor on the Pennsylvania Railroad, blinded by the driving snow, stepped in front of the Congressional Limited train at South Amboy, N. J., and was instantly killed.

A remarkable story of misfortune was told yesterday by Supt. York, of the city lodging-house at New York. Five hundred persons, nearly all of them men applied for shelter at this institution during the night. Only 500 of the 500 were overcoats, and hardly half of the 500 had either underwear or stockings.

Buried under three feet of snow the nearly lifeless body of a pretty well-dressed girl was discovered yesterday morning at the corner of Myrtle and Wyckoff avenues, Brooklyn. She will probably die. Whether she was the victim of the blizzard of Tuesday night or whether she was drugged and cast into the snow to die is the question which is being investigated by the police. After careful treatment at the German

Hospital the girl revived sufficiently to give her name and address, which is Miss Eleanor Laxton, Myrtle avenue and Fresh Pond road.

A Brooklyn bridge employee, on his way home at 5 o'clock yesterday morning, stumbled over the body lying in a deep drift and completely covered by the snow. The body was carried to a nearby saloon, where all efforts to revive her failed. A summons was then sent to the German Hospital, Dr. Bauer, who responded, was unable to revive the girl, who was still unconscious. He gave the impression that she had been drugged. While turning the corner at Knickerbocker and D-Kalb avenues, on the way to the hospital, the ambulance was overturned, throwing the girl into a deep drift. Policeman Decker summoned the patrol wagon of the Hamburg Avenue police station, and the girl was taken to the hospital in that.

Chemical Origin of Life.

That life is the result of purely physical and chemical forces, irrespective of any divine or vital force, has been declared by Prof. Albert P. Mathews, of the University of Chicago to his class in physiological chemistry. While refusing to dispute the theory of the divine origin of life, Professor Mathews took the stand that the present creation of life has been proved the result of purely physico-chemical substances," he said, "coming together under certain conditions, and are bound to produce life. There is no getting away from facts, and the results of laboratory experiments in regard to the production of certain phenomena of life are convincing."

Night Was Her Terror.

"I would cough nearly all night long," writes Mrs. Chas. Applegate, of Alexandria, Ind., "and could hardly get any sleep. I had consumption so bad that if I walked a block I would cough frightfully and spit blood, but when all other medicines failed, three $1 bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery wholly cured me and I gained 35 pounds. It's absolutely guaranteed to cure Coughs, Colds, La Grippe, Bronchitis and all Throat and Lung Troubles. Price 50c and $1. Trial bottle free at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store."

While there is life there is hope.

I was afflicted with catarrh; could neither taste nor smell and could hear but little. Ely's Cream Balm cured it.—Marius G. Shantz, Kalamazoo, Mich.

Ely's Cream Balm reached me safely and the effect is surprising. My son says the first application gave decided relief. Respectfully, Mrs. Franklin Freeman, Dover, N. H.

The balm does not irritate or cause sneezing. Sold by druggists at 50c. or, by mail, by Ely Brothers, 56 Warren St., New York.

Mr. Wm. S. Crane, of California, Md., suffered for years from rheumatism and lumbago. He was finally advised to try Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which he did and it effected a complete cure. This liniment is for sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

The food builds up the body, the rest restores the stomach to health. You don't have to diet yourself when taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. J. D. Becklin, of Allentown, Mich., says, "I suffered heartburn and stomach trouble for some time. My sister-in-law has had the same trouble and was not able to eat for six weeks. She lived entirely on warm water. After taking two bottles of Kodol Dyspepsia Cure she was entirely cured. She now eats heartily and is in good health. I am glad to say Kodol gave me instant relief." Sold by all druggists.
